AirAsia continues Lunar New Year cheer for the elderly

KUALA LUMPUR, 16 February 2019 – The Chinese Lunar New Year festivities continue at Chik Sin Thong Klang & Pantai Old Folks' home, as AirAsia hosts festive treats and entertainment with residents and staff.

AirAsia X Malaysia CEO Benyamin Ismail and management hosted the special lunch, which included festive music, fun team dancing and the gifting of âng-pau and festive hampers.

Established in 1968, Chik Sin Thong Klang & Pantai Old Folks' Home located in Klang is currently housing over 30 elderly residents aged 65 and above. The home takes care of senior citizens who are without immediate family members from the surrounding area.
